Meeting Discussion

12:00 – 12:15pm: Welcome/Introductions & Announcements

Each member stated their name and affiliated organization/sector. (Due to unexpected lack of time, presenters introduced themselves before speaking)

12:15 – pm: Ice Breaker - Healthy Community

On Index cards – members were asked to write the following:

Side 1: I think _____ is part of a healthy community.

Side 2: I joined ASAP because _____.

Once members were finished, they shared while a member recorded responses.

We analyzed the similarities and differences between all the responses.

1st Side Results: Communication, education, collaboration, mentorship, unity, involvement, partnership, compassion, and awareness of resources.

2nd Side Results: Wanted to help find a solution, to be an Advocate, Carry Prevention Messaging (Awareness), Because I was told to, Because I see the impact of drugs and alcohol every day, wanted to make a difference, No New Users, Wanted to Help

12:30 – 12:35pm: Liquor Awards and Stories

Shared pictures we have thus far and mentioned some of the establishments that have received their awards. We did also acknowledge the members who helped volunteered to help. Another big THANK YOU to Scott MacMullen, Margie Kosmerl, Holly Frye, Caitlin Hall, Sandy Smolnick, Brandon MacMurphy, Amanda Larkins, Angel Traynor, and Izelle Van Zuylen.

12:30 – 12:35pm: MSPF 2

Moving Forward: Award letter has been delayed and we are still anticipating receiving that. MSPF 2 start date is July 1, 2017. Once we receive the award letter, ASAP will need to develop a Needs Assessment using a work book provided by the state.

12:35 – 12:40 PM: Capacity Building

Members were asked to write down on 5 things we can do or 5 people we can bring to the next coalition meeting.

Members shared what they wrote what they wrote down as suggestions they could do or we could do to help build capacity.

One member hasn't found out about ASAP until this meeting. Asked how she found out and she mentioned SADD Meeting

Some Suggestions were:

Develop One Pager to give to Timmeka to include in Juvenile exit papers for parents

Youth Street Teams

Invite more sectors

Revisiting people who used to attend, but no longer attend. (Reach Out)

More Diversity

Media Exposure

More posts on Social Media

Driver Education Schools

Invite Liquor Establishments that were Awarded

More Business Owners
